10:25am	Harnessing AI for Fearlessness: Accelerating Success and Impact in Work & Life In an era where technology is a pivotal ally in our professional and personal lives, understanding and utilizing Artificial Intelligence (AI) can be a game-changer. This workshop, designed for both business owners and corporate professionals, will delve into how AI tools, with a focus on platforms like ChatGPT, can empower you to be more fearless, breaking barriers to accelerate success and impact. This will be an interactive session where you will walk away with actionable steps you can immediately use to accelerate your growth. Special Note: While this workshop is AI platform-agnostic, we will be demonstrating various applications using ChatGPT. To maximize your learning experience, we recommend downloading ChatGPT on your phone before attending. Presenter: Jennifer Willey, Founder & CEO – Wet Cement
11:15am	Keynote – Ramesh Durvasula, Sr. Vice President – Information Officer R&D – Eli Lilly & Company So, you have an AI? “That Don’t Impress me Much” (In honor of Shania Twain!) In an age where AI is as common as cough syrup on a pharmacy shelf, it’s time to ask ourselves: is having AI in your toolkit enough to stand out, or is it just another generic off-the-shelf remedy? Join us as we explore how to truly innovate and not just iterate, how to be the cure and not just a bandage, and how to ensure you’re AI solutions are not just smart, but genius. Let’s raise the bar, not just the dosage of how tech can drive pharma innovation.
